

1. Purpose

This policy outlines the rules, benefits, and responsibilities for all members of the company. It ensures a fair, transparent, and professional work environment that promotes accountability, performance, and growth.

2. Working Hours & Attendance

- Standard working hours are 9 hours per day, Monday to Friday.
 - All members are expected to maintain punctuality and fulfill the required work hours during weekdays.
 - If total weekly hours are not met, members are expected to compensate on weekends.
 - Weekends are officially off, but in case of urgent work or project deadlines, members must be available to work. They will be compensated equally for their additional work on weekends.
 - Regular attendance and timely reporting are essential for maintaining workflow and client commitments.

3. Probation Period

- Every new member will undergo a 3-month probation period.
- During probation:
 - Only 1 paid leave is allowed.

- Any additional leave will result in salary deduction on a per-day basis.
 - Performance, discipline, and adaptability will be evaluated.
 - Upon successful completion of the probation period:
 - The member will receive a confirmation letter.
 - All regular benefits and annual leave entitlements will begin to apply.
 - During probation, either party (member or company) may terminate the association with a 15-day written notice.

4. Leave Policy

- Each confirmed member is entitled to 15 paid annual leaves per calendar year.
 - Annual leaves can only be redeemed after completing 12 months of continuous service.
 - Taking a leave on Friday or Monday will be considered a 3-day leave (Friday–Sunday or Saturday–Monday) due to tough client's deadline over the end and beginning of the week.
 - Members must inform at least 1–2 days in advance before taking any casual leave.
 - In case of urgent or medical need, members may apply for unpaid leave, subject to approval.
 - All leave requests must be submitted in advance through the designated HR channel.
 - Any employee taking leaves in advance for university or purpose of else with completing 1-year period will have to adjust the leaves with their balance at the time of leaving.

5. Notice Period

- After confirmation, both the company and the member must provide at least a 1-month written notice before resignation or termination.

- Failure to serve the notice period will result in salary deduction equivalent to the notice duration.

6. Performance Evaluation & Promotions

- Member performance will be reviewed every 6 months.
 - Evaluations will be based on:
 - Task completion and quality of work
 - Punctuality and attendance
 - Team collaboration and communication
 - Initiative and professionalism
 - Promotions and salary adjustments will be performance-based, not tenure-based.

7. Company Assets & Confidentiality

- Members are strictly prohibited from using:
 - Company portfolio, client projects, or deliverables for personal branding or freelance purposes.
 - Company or client data outside the scope of their work.
 - Breach of confidentiality or misuse of company materials may result in immediate termination and legal action.

8. Professional Conduct

- Members are expected to maintain a high standard of ethics, respect, and discipline in all professional dealings.
 - Harassment, discrimination, or disrespectful behavior of any kind will not be tolerated.

9. Disciplinary Actions

- Violations of company policy, repeated absenteeism, or misconduct may result in:
 1. Verbal warning
 2. Written warning
 3. Final warning
 4. Termination of association
 - The company reserves the right to deduct pay for unauthorized absences or policy violations.

10. Amendments

The company reserves the right to modify, add, or remove any policy based on organizational needs. Any such changes will be communicated to members in writing.
